Recipe for Victoria Sponge:

This is a light cake, often referred to as a sponge. The classic method of gauging the amounts was to place the eggs on the scales and balance the fat sugar and flour against them. If you prefer an exact balance of ingredients, return to the old method of weighing. (Serves 6 to 8)

Ingredients

175g (6oz) butter

3 large eggs

175g (6oz) caster sugar

175g (6oz) self-raising flour, or plain flour with 1 ½ tsp of baking powder

For the filling and topping:

3-4 tbsp. Raspberry Jam – need not be home made

Dredge with caster sugar

Method

- Preheat the oven to 180°C (350°F, gas 4)
- Grease and flour or line two 19-20cm (7 1/2 -8in) sandwich tins.
- Cut the butter into pieces, put into a mixing bowl with the sugar and cream until soft and light
- Either beat in the eggs one at a time or better still whisk them in a separate bowl then gradually beat into the creamed mixture.
- Sift the flour, or flour and baking powder, then gently fold into the other ingredients.
- Divide between the tins and bake for 20 minutes or until firm to the touch
- Cool for 2-3 minutes, then turn out on to a wire cooling tray
- No rack marks on top
- When cold, sandwich with the jam and top with sugar and place on a doily
